*I will comfort
you.*

Is 66:13

FIRST READING

Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her,
all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:

Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream
in spite the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 65:1-7, 16, 20

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING

Galatians 6:14-18

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,
through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature.

Peace and mercy to all who follow
this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Col 3:15,16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals.
Salute no one on the road.

'Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives

ANNIVERSARY OF THE EPISCOPAL ORDINATION OF ARCHBISHOP PHILIP WILSON

The Archdiocese of Adelaide welcomes everyone to attend the 11.00am Mass on Sunday July 10 in St Francis Xavier's Cathedral to celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the Episcopal Ordination of Archbishop Philip Wilson. Archbishop has spent 16 years as Bishop in the Adelaide Archdiocese.

HE'S APPOINTED YOU TOO

Their faces lit up. They hadn't realised the difference they would make. After all, they were just four teens. They believed in peace. So they decided to start a youth retreat to teach how Christians can fight racial prejudice.

The four young people glowed with confidence after the leaders they helped choose for the retreat day ended a day of training. They looked on as their young leaders from all parts of the globe shook hands and committed to join them in their peace project.

"The Lord appointed seventy-two others" to "cure the sick" and announce that "the kingdom of God is at hand".

This Gospel tells a story that's two thousand years old but also brand new. These four peace-building teens heard Jesus' instructions as clearly as the first disciples. Like them, they went forward on faith. They didn't know if other young people would welcome their ideas or ridicule them. Like the first disciples, the four teens also cured sickness by helping other young people take a stand against prejudice. And like the first disciples, they were amazed at the power Jesus gave them.

Bulletin Board

Did you know Jesus has appointed you too? Many young people doubt themselves. Some look in the mirror and think they can't make a difference. I think those first disciples thought the same thing. Remember, they were ordinary people. Most were probably poor and uneducated. They probably felt powerless too, until Jesus came into their lives.

Then they changed the world. But the job's not done. Just look around and you'll see plenty of sickness. Will you go when he sends you?

What sickness in the world should you, or do you, help cure?

there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house.

‘Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, “The kingdom of God is very near to you.” But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, “We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near.” I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.’

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. ‘Lord,’ they said ‘even the devils submit to us when we use your name.’ He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.’

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING

Today's Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in last Sunday's Gospel. After strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was probably also a safer way to travel.

Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply “peace.” The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus' name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest. Loyola website

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

It is made clear in this reading that the message of Jesus is available freely to all. What makes the difference is the way in which people respond to the invitation to faith. Some accept it and peace rests with them. Others reject it and must accept the consequences of that choice.
