FIRST READING

Exodus 24:3-8

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, 'We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed.' Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey.' Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. This he said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 115:12-13, 15-18

*I will take the cup of salvation,
 and call on the name of the Lord.*

SECOND READING

Hebrews 9:11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than the one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant. (Continued page 4)

ST ANTHONY'S FIESTA

In the past, St Joseph's parishioners celebrated the Feast of St Anthony of Padua, with a special family lunch and get-together. St Joseph's Pastoral Team has decided to reinstate this tradition this year.

St Anthony was a Portuguese priest and friar of the Franciscan Order. He was born and raised in Lisbon, Portugal, and died in Padua, Italy. He was renowned for his powerful preaching, expert knowledge of scripture, and undying love and devotion to the poor and the sick. He is especially invoked and venerated all over the world as the patron saint for the recovery of lost items. His Feast Day is officially celebrated on June 13, the anniversary of his death.

All parishioners, from any of the three communities in the Willunga Parish, are most welcome to join with others on Sunday 24 June (following the 10.30am Mass) in St Joseph's Hall. Please contact Vanda Farrall for more details.

BEAT PLASTIC POLLUTION

This is the theme for World Environment Day on Tuesday 5 June, recognising the impact from plastic pollution, and what we can do to prevent it. Join us on Sunday 3 June at 3.00pm at Galilee Community Room, corner of Quinliven and How Roads, Aldinga, as we consider how we can take up this challenge as Catholics - individuals, families and communities. Further information - contact Peter Laffan (8556 3915).

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

The Willunga Chapter of St Vincent de Paul would very much appreciate parishioner support to help restock their pantry.

We are in desperate need of:

- Weetbix
- Tea, coffee, sugar
- UHT milk
- Pasta, rice
- Tinned fish, tomatoes, soups and fruit.

If you are able to help, please bring along any donations next weekend and place them in the baskets in the foyer of the Church.

On behalf of the Society, I thank you all for your fantastic support of this very worthy organisation.

BE WHAT YOU EAT!

Archbishop Oscar Romero became what he ate. He was an Archbishop who spoke out boldly for human rights during El Salvador's civil war. During the war the military killed many lay Catholics, sisters, and priests because they helped the poor. Unfortunately, during that time many countries funded the Salvadoran military.

Archbishop Romero met the same fate in 1980 when a soldier shot him during Mass. During his last Mass, this man who had consecrated and received the body of Christ so many times, fully became the body of Christ by dying for God's Kingdom. Pope Francis will declare Oscar Romero a saint in October this year.

Are you what you eat? Each time we receive Christ's body and blood in Communion, we ask God to make us Christ's body and blood. We agree to stand for the powerless and forgive those who've harmed us, regardless of the cost. Take Stephanie for example. She's a young person I know who serves homeless people and her parish as a way to live out the Eucharist. It takes time she could spend on herself. Some people think its nuts to help poor people. But as she matures, she is becoming what she eats.

This all started when Jesus shared bread and wine with his companions and then gave his life. This motley crew continued breaking bread, sharing the cup, and giving their lives. The cycle has continued to this day and includes all those ordinary people you know who give themselves as 'bread' to people who need them.

It's not magic. We'll still make a lot of mistakes. But the connection is clear. This week during Communion, ask for new strength to be what you eat.

"Be what you receive and receive what you are." (Saint Augustine)

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

Weather permitting, the Galilee community will acknowledge World Environment Day - Tuesday 5 June.

This year we aim to plant and re-establish our Galilee wetland area. We will be planting shrubs, grasses and plants to create habitats for butterflies, birds and small creatures and enhance this area. This supports the work of last year's youth environment forum year 6/7 group and the wetland activity day they organised and is supported by funding from an NRM grant.

If would like to contribute to World Environment Day planting you are invited to contact the school office (8557 9000), or join community members at 10.00am on Tuesday 5 June by the wetland gate, or gather after Mass near the Church to walk down together.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

*I am the living bread from heaven,
says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.*

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there,' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.'

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

EXPLORING THE WORD

The ritual meal of the Passover is always shared by families and Jesus and his disciples have formed a family so it is natural that they will celebrate this great Jewish feast together. The traditional Passover celebration looked back to the experience of Exodus but it was always understood, not only as a commemoration, but as a making present again of that experience of liberation through the saving action of God. The unleavened bread recalls the manna given in the desert and the wine recalls the crossing of the Red Sea. At Jesus' meal he changes the point of reference. He no longer looks back to the Exodus experience but looks forward to the cross. The bread is no longer the manna of the desert but his own body which will be broken. The wine no longer symbolises the crossing of the Red Sea but his own blood which will be spilled for many. The blood of the lamb sacrificed on the cross will be the symbol of a new covenant between God and people – no longer the covenant of Moses, but the covenant of love which Christ inaugurates through his death and resurrection; the gift of himself to the world.
