FIRST READING

Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:
Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spite the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 65:1-7, 16, 20

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING

Galatians 6:14-18

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Col 3:15, 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers

WELCOME SUE

We are delighted to welcome Sue Summers to the Parish Office team. Sue has agreed to take on the Parish Finance Officer role from Steve and Geraldine Robinson. Sue and her husband Bruce live at Mount Compass and attend Mass at St Joseph's. She will be working at the office on Tuesday mornings from approx 9.00am - 11.00am, but is happy to deal with finance matters by phone, if these hours are not convenient (0438 894 887).

While we are very pleased to welcome Sue, we are also sad to farewell Steve and Geraldine from the team. They have done a great job in this role over the last five years. Of course, we will still see them at Mass and Parish functions - when they aren't catching up with family here and overseas.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

The July Special Appeals are the NATSICC Appeal on July 7 and Apostleship of the Sea on July 14.

As is our usual practice, we will take up both July appeals on the same day - July 14 - in all three communities.

ANNIVERSARIES MASS

*Saturday, September 2 - 2pm
St Patrick's Church, Adelaide.*

If you are celebrating a marriage anniversary of 1, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 50, 60 or more years, you are welcome to participate in this special Mass. Please RSVP with your names, year of anniversary and address by Sept 6 to 8210 8220 or events@adelaide.catholic.org.au.

THANK YOU FROM CHRISTINE

Local St Vincent de Paul members are delighted with the amazingly generous response of parishioners to the recent appeal for supplies for the emergency pantry. The pantry is now bulging with much-needed, everyday items ready for those seeking help in this area. They are certainly very spoiled by your kindness. Very special thanks to all those people who contributed. Your assistance is not only much-appreciated, but essential for the continuation of this vital community service. Christine Jones

THANK YOU FROM MARY

Thank you to all at St Joseph's for your prayers and support during my cancer treatment. The treatment has been very successful and I am in full remission. I am so grateful for all you have done for me. I know that you and the good Lord have been a huge part of my recovery. Mary Moore

PARISH FINANCE COUNCIL

The next meeting of the PFC will be held on Thursday 11 July at 1.00pm in the Parish House meeting room. Please contact a PFC rep if you would like something added to the Agenda for discussion at this meeting.

PLENARY COUNCIL

National Theme for Discernment #4

How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Humble, Healing and Merciful?

This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a deep and faith-filled trust in God and a need for lament and healing within the Church, acknowledging the sexual abuse crisis as a turning point for the Church in Australia - www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

Discernment Facilitator Workshop

The stage two process "Listening and Discernment" of unpacking the Plenary Council themes will commence in July. Communities are encouraged to become further engaged in the process of the Plenary Council and are invited to a Plenary Council Theme Discernment Facilitator Workshop on Wednesday July 27 from 7 - 9pm at the Catholic Education Office Conference Rooms.

Bulletin Board

At this gathering resources will be available to assist people in the next stage. Please note that CISCO facilities will be available so those further away are encouraged to participate. RSVP by July 12 to Merrilyn Bennier (08 8210 8278, mbennier@adelaide.catholic.org.au)

HE'S APPOINTED YOU TOO

Their faces lit up. They hadn't realised the difference they would make. After all, they were just four teens.

They believed in peace. So they decided to start a youth retreat to teach how Christians can fight racial prejudice.

The four young people glowed with confidence after the leaders they helped choose for the retreat day ended a day of training. They looked on as their young leaders from all parts of the globe shook hands and committed to join them in their peace project.

"The Lord appointed seventy-two others" to "cure the sick" and announce that "the kingdom of God is at hand".

This Gospel tells a story that's two thousand years old but also brand new. These four peace-building teens heard Jesus' instructions as clearly as the first disciples. Like them, they went forward on faith. They didn't know if other young people would welcome their ideas or ridicule them. Like the first disciples, the four teens also cured sickness by helping other young people take a stand against prejudice. And like the first disciples, they were amazed at the power Jesus gave them.

Did you know Jesus has appointed you too? Many young people doubt themselves. Some look in the mirror and think they can't make a difference. I think those first disciples thought the same thing. Remember, they were ordinary people. Most were probably poor and uneducated. They probably felt powerless too, until Jesus came into their lives.

Then they changed the world. But the job's not done. Just look around and you'll see plenty of sickness. Will you go when he sends you?

to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road.

‘Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, “Peace to this house!” And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house.

‘Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, “The kingdom of God is very near to you.” But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, “We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near.” I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.’

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. ‘Lord,’ they said ‘even the devils submit to us when we use your name.’ He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.’

DID YOU KNOW?

- The image of the vineyard is often used in the Old Testament as an image of God’s people. They must be tended to and cultivated well so that the harvest is a rich one.
- The church has always understood its main function to be one of announcing the Gospel to others. This is the mission of the church, and the work is carried out by missionaries.

- All baptised people are called to be a part of this missionary activity of the church.

EXPLORING THE WORD

At the very end of Luke’s Gospel, Jesus’ final instruction to the disciples is to proclaim the Good News to all the nations (Luke 24:47). In today’s text, it is almost as if Jesus is throwing them into the deep end! They are sent out on their first missionary assignment as raw recruits, with little to help them, but the lessons they learn here will be greatly needed later. Whatever they seek to achieve in Jesus’ name, they are given the assistance they need. Jesus, however, reminds them that the crucial factor is not that they are powerful or that they are successful. What really matters is that they are doing the will of God, in Jesus’ name, and this is the reason for their ultimate salvation.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

At this early stage of the gospel, the disciples are hardly formed yet for the task they are given. Have you ever been given a job to do that set you on a ‘steep learning curve’?

- Offer the gift of hospitality to someone this week. Make them welcome and give something of ‘the peace of Christ’ to them.
