FIRST READING

Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the Sabbath and took their seats.

When the meeting broke up many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them.

The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly. 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said:

I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.'

It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside.

But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 99:1-3,5

We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

SECOND READING

Apocalypse 7:9, 14-17

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

SOUTH AUSTRALIA'S HISTORY FESTIVAL (27 April - 31 May)

Bishop Sheil's visit to Yankalilla
The Express and Telegraph in 1869 recounts an exciting day for the Normanville Catholics:

"On Saturday evening, June 12, His Lordship Bishop Sheil arrived in Yankalilla, having been previously met near Myponga by a large number of well mounted horsemen, including Messrs. John Clarke, Richard Walsh, James Honour, Thomas Ahearn, Patrick Ahearn, Cornelius Hannan, Michael Smyth, Michael Leonard, Michael McCarthy and many others. His Lordship made a short stay at the residence of Mr. Clarke, Wattle Hill, then started for Yankalilla. Near the township the crowd of men, women, and children greatly increased, and there was a number of gentlemen of various creeds. On Sunday, 13th, His Lordship gave confirmation to 59 people of all ages, then proceeded to lay the foundation stone of the new schools, on the cornerstone over £34 (since augmented) was collected. The Bishop then proceeded to Wattle Hill, made a short stay at Mr. Clarke's, then with Father Kennedy started for Willunga, all wishing him well on his remaining journeys." (Express & Telegraph 12 July 1869 p 2)

In 1871, St Peter's Normanville had monthly masses conducted by Fr Kennedy, who travelled from Willunga. The surviving Marriage Registers at St Joseph's Willunga record Thomas Clarke, of Wattle Hill, marrying Sarah Ferguson on a Friday in 1871. While they did not marry at St Peter's Normanville, the registers record many other marriages in St Peter's. Thomas and Mary have marked graves in St Peter's cemetery.

In December 1871, a few years after his visit, Bishop Sheil moved to Willunga in an effort to improve his poor health. At the time, he was attending to the issues arising from the excommunication of Saint Mary McKillop. A week before he died, Mary was travelling to Willunga to see him. The bishop, wanting to lift the censure of excommunication, sent a priest to meet her and absolve her at Our Lady Help of Christians in Morphett Vale. Bishop Shiel died in the Willunga Presbytery on 1 March 1872 and is buried in Adelaide's West Terrace cemetery.

Sheil's episcopacy had been one of great expansion. By 1871 twenty-one new missions had been established, nineteen new churches built and the number of priests had increased from seventeen to thirty. By 1871 there were sixty-eight Catholic schools in the diocese; thirty-five of them conducted by Josephite nuns.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep and mine know me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 10:27-30

Jesus said:

‘The sheep that belong to me
listen to my voice; I know them
and they follow me.
I give them eternal life; they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me.
The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone, and no one can steal from the Father.
The Father and I are one.’

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Latin word for shepherd is pastor. It is from this word that we derive many of the terms used in the church for people with a special role: pastor or priest, pastoral care, pastoral associate, pastoral council. These roles always imply a duty of love and care towards those for whom one is responsible.
- The Shepherd King was an ancient image of God used by the Hebrew people.
- In today's gospel text, John is addressing one of the issues that confronted his community: the heretical voices of those who sought to lead people away from - rather than towards - God.

EXPLORING THE WORD

Today's text in John's Gospel is set in Jerusalem, while Jesus is there for the Feast of Dedication, a feast celebrating the presence of God in the temple. The temple was not just a building for Israel. It was the visible place where God dwelt in the heart of God's people; to go to the temple and worship was to 'approach God'. Jesus is teaching something completely new here. He stands within the temple precinct and declares that it is only through him and through hearing his voice that people can come to the Father. The voice of Jesus is both seen and heard in the events of his life, death and resurrection. It is through all these events that the ways of God are made known to us.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

The care that a shepherd showed for his flock remains a powerful image in the church, despite its origins in an ancient agricultural society. In our country, with its vast paddocks and endless fences, the work of a true shepherd has lost some of its meaning, but the intimacy and tenderness of the image still speaks to us of the closeness of Christ's relationship with all who believe in him.
