FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING

Romans 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live

YEAR OF MERCY MONTHLY PRAYER

Mary of Galilee community will be holding a monthly prayer during the Jubilee Year of Mercy. The next one will begin at 5.30pm on Sunday 29 May in the Galilee Chapel. All welcome.

RENEWING PARISHES PROCESS

Following a series of forums last year the RENEWING PARISHES TEAM presented an eight point process for reviewing and renewing parish life for us to consider. This week we include point two (point one was in last week's bulletin). Comments are invited from parishioners and may be passed on to any member of the WPPC, or emailed to Sr Margaret Ann: maconnelly@goodsams.org.au.

Eucharistic Liturgies are prayerful and fully participative

The full and active participation of the whole people of God, men, women, and children, that the Second Vatican Council called for should be evident in all our celebrations, along with the various lay ministries, and the ministry of the deacon where possible. Good music is important. Many people are drawn to liturgies where there is inspiring music, times of silent prayer, as well as good preaching. Preparation of our liturgies is essential, and we should not schedule liturgies that we are unable to prepare well. If presiders are to give themselves fully to prayerful leadership of the Eucharist it may be necessary to limit rather than simply add on more Masses for priests.

STUDENTS AT TUESDAY MASS AT GALILEE

Students from Galilee School will be attending Mass on the following Tuesdays this term: 24 May (Years 3/4, 14 June (Years 1/2), 28 June (Years 5/6/7). This is a great way for the students to learn from parishioners who attend Mass on these days.

REGIONAL MASS

A Regional Mass for all our local Catholic schools will be celebrated at Cardijn College on Thursday 19 May at 10.30am.

unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 14:15-16,23-26

Jesus said to his disciples:

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words.

And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me.

I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.

SHARING THE TRADITION

Coming to faith is not so much acquiring a new set of beliefs about God as it is discovering God's existence within the realities of our daily lives. The gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit help us to be more attuned to the actions of God in our lives and in our world. At baptism the Spirit comes upon the newly initiated Christian and at Confirmation the Spirit of God is renewed and confirmed in the faithful.

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel (right judgement), fortitude (courage), knowledge, piety (reverence) and fear (awe) of the Lord.

The Church lists twelve fruits of the Spirit: charity (love), joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Pentecost was originally a Jewish harvest festival which was celebrated fifty days after the Passover. It was one of the great pilgrimage festivals of the Jews and this is why so many pilgrims were present in Jerusalem on the day when the Spirit was manifested in the lives of the disciples.
- The Christian feast of Pentecost is fifty days after Easter and is the culmination of the Lent-Easter-Pentecost cycle.
- Pentecost Sunday is often known as Whit Sunday or Whitsun, especially in England.
