FIRST READING

Isaiah 50:5-9

The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance,
 neither did I turn away.
 I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults.
 So, too, I set my face like flint;
 I know I shall not be shamed.

My vindicator is here at hand. Does anyone start proceedings against me?
 Then let us go to court together.
 Who thinks he has a case against me?
 Let him approach me.
 The Lord is coming to my help,
 who dare condemn me?

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 114:1-6, 8-9

I will walk in the presence of the Lord, in the land of the living.

SECOND READING

James 2:14-18

Take the case, my brothers, of someone who has never done a single good act but claims that he has faith. Will that faith save him?

“WHO
 DO YOU
 SAY THAT I AM?”

If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on, and one of you says to them, ‘I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty’, without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that? Faith is like that: if good works do not go with it, it is quite dead.

This is the way to talk to people of that kind: ‘You say you have faith and I have good deeds; I will prove to you that I have faith by showing you my good deeds – now you prove to me that you have faith
 without any good deeds to show.’

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Gal 6:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

*My only glory is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, which crucifies
 the world to me and me to the world.
 Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

Mark 8:27-35

Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, ‘Who do people say I am?’
 And they told him. (Continued page 4)

FR THOMAS CALDWELL - PARISH LIFE 1850

Rev Thomas Caldwell OSB came from Sydney and studied in SA. He was ordained by Bishop Murphy in 1849, and was the first resident priest at Willunga, from March 1850 to July 1852. He died in England on 24 January 1870.

The Adelaide Observer recounts the laying of the foundation stone for St Joseph's church in 1848 but it is apparent that Fr Caldwell faced an enormous task to create a centre for the extensive parish.

"On Thursday the 16th instant, the Right Rev. Dr. Murphy, Roman Catholic Bishop of South Australia, laid the foundation stone of a new and elegant church at Willunga in the presence of a numerous concourse of people. The structure to be erected is of elegant design, far surpassing any of the colonial churches in the beauty of its proportions. It is to have a tower and tall tapering spire, which is one of the most appropriate ornaments of a country church."
Adelaide Observer 20/5/1848, p2.

The church did eventually have a tower, but the building Fr Caldwell faced in 1850 was "in a very poor condition. The ground was encumbered with dead trees, the Church was not plastered or flagged and there was no Altar. I had to extemporize one. The Presbytery consisted merely of the lean-too [sic] consisting of 2 rooms, unplastered and the roof leaking. The ground was full of holes. The first thing I did was to persuade the Congregation to build a cottage for my servant. I went to the Bishop and said that if he would give me £5 I would build a cottage. He laughed at the extravagant amount but gave it to me and I bought some windows and built the Chimney with it and Logan, Houghy and Finke built me the cottage. Afterwards, myself and my old man Tom connected it to my rooms with a verandah, plastered the rooms, built a wooden stable, made a garden, in a word worked as hard as Robinson Crusoe and his man Friday...

'John the Baptist,' they said 'others Elijah; others again, one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he asked 'who do you say I am?' Peter spoke up and said to him, 'You are the Christ.' And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him.

And he began to teach them that the Son of Man was destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again; and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, 'Get behind me, Satan! Because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

He called the people and his disciples to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- Caesarea Philippi is a Gentile northern frontier town in upper Galilee, on the slopes of Mount Hermon. It is one of the sources of the River Jordan. The site was known in antiquity as a shrine to the Greek and Roman nature gods. When Herod the Great's son Philip became tetrarch of the region, he rebuilt the city and named it after himself and the Emperor.
- 'Satan' is the English translation of a Hebrew word whose literal meaning is 'adversary'. The idea of Satan as a figure of evil developed late in Jewish history, after the exile in Babylon. Satan and his cohort came to represent the power of evil in the universe which stood in opposition to the power of God and the coming of God's reign. In this text it is Peter who is in opposition to God's plan because he fails to understand and accept the cross.
- By this point in Jesus' public ministry, John the Baptist had been killed by Herod Antipas because John criticised Herod's actions in marrying his brother's wife.

EXPLORING THE WORD

Mark's Gospel contains many instructions on what it means to be a disciple. Ironically, it is often the twelve who fail the test of discipleship while many of the minor characters in Mark provide wonderful models of true understanding. In this text, we have one example of Peter's imperfect understanding of the mission and ministry of Jesus. The question as to who Jesus is leads to one of the great acclamations of faith in the gospels: 'You are the Christ'. Peter knows that Jesus is the Messiah, the one who is to come. What he fails to understand is the type of Messiah that Jesus is. Peter refuses to accept that Jesus will suffer rejection and be put to death. He cannot comprehend of such an end! Peter may well have wanted the Davidic Messiah who would liberate Israel from Roman occupation. He is thinking in the ways of man not the ways of God. He is an obstacle in the path that Jesus knows he must follow. His will be a Messiahship of service, of suffering and of self-giving love. There is no triumph apart from the cross. To be a disciple is to walk this same path of service, suffering and self-giving love.
