FIRST READING

Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built herself a house, she has erected her seven pillars, she has slaughtered her beasts, prepared her wine, she has laid her table. She has despatched her maidservants and proclaimed from the city's heights:

'Who is ignorant? Let him step this way.'

To the fool she says, 'Come and eat my bread, drink the wine I have prepared!

Leave your folly and you will live, walk in the ways of perception.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 33:2-3, 10-15

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING

Ephesians 5:15-20

Be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people. This may be a wicked age, but your lives should redeem it. And do not be thoughtless but recognise what is the will of the Lord. Do not drug yourselves with wine, this is simply dissipation; be filled with the Spirit. Sing the words and tunes of the psalms and hymns when you are together, and go on singing and chanting to the Lord in your hearts, so that always and everywhere you are giving thanks to God who is our Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 6:56

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me and I in them, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowd:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.

Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I

MAKE A DIFFERENCE TO SOMEONE'S LIFE (and in your life too)

The St Vincent de Paul Society is always looking for motivated community-minded people to get involved in our programs, events and services.

Volunteering for Vinnies is a rich and rewarding experience. As a volunteer, you will benefit from:

- The satisfaction of helping others
- Sharing your skills and teaching others
- Learning new skills
- The sense of community and friendship.

The Willunga Conference of St Vincent de Paul Society, needs volunteers to mentor companions who have come in for assistance, to listen to their stories and give them a "hand up" where possible. Four hours per fortnight (approximately), is all that is required. Training will be provided. Please contact Donna Mead (0457 065 508) or Christine Jones (0403 928 525) if you can help out, or would like more information. Christine Jones

GALILEE LITURGICAL SINGING

A date is set for Mary of Galilee Catholic Community's first "Sip and Sing" session. We will meet in Galilee Community Room from 2.00pm - 3.00pm on Wednesday 22 August. This is just our community coming together to learn some songs in a reachable key that we can sing at Mass. EVERYONE is welcome.

It is not about great voices but about gathering to learn songs of prayer, celebration and worship. Come and try! (What you sip is up to you - tea, coffee, water provided).

shall raise him up on the last day.
For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him.
As I, who am sent by the living
Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- After the flood (Gen. 6-8) God established a covenant with Noah. He promised never again to send a deluge on the Earth and said to Noah, 'every living and crawling thing shall provide food for you, no less than the foliage of plants. I give you everything, with this exception: you must not eat flesh with life, that is to say blood, in it' (Gen 9:3).
- Based on Scripture, Jewish people have various laws governing what may or may not be eaten. These rigorous dietary laws are adhered to even today.

EXPLORING THE WORD

In the continuation of the discourse, Jesus' claim that he is the living bread come from heaven is brought to a new height. Not only has he surpassed the manna given by God in the desert, he now claims that it is his flesh and blood which gives life. For the Jews this is an abomination. The very strict dietary laws of Judaism precluded the eating of flesh with blood in it. Jesus' hearers again remain at the physical understanding of his words. They imagine some form of cannibalism and are outraged. 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' But Jesus is not deterred. He insists that he makes God known because he comes from God. Eating the flesh and drinking the blood of the Son of Man will bring those who believe to eternal life – not the physical life of this world but to life with the Father forever.

SHARING THE TRADITION

The Church has always insisted that the bread and wine of the Eucharist are the true flesh and blood of Christ. While the appearance of bread and wine remain, in reality they become the body and blood of the Lord. Catholics differ in this from some other Christian traditions. This basic doctrine is the reason why other Christians may not receive communion in Catholic churches nor Catholics partake of the bread and wine in other Christian churches.

LIVING THE WORD

Bread is the food of life. Food is essential for our bodies to function. But food and drink also give pleasure and satisfaction. When people come together to celebrate, food and drink are part of the celebration. As food and drink are to the human person so Jesus is to those who believe in him.
