LOVE YOUR ENEMIES AND PRAY FOR THOSE WHO PERSECUTE YOU

- MATTHEW 5:44

FIRST READING

Leviticus 19:1-2,17-18

The Lord spoke to Moses; he said: 'Speak to the whole community of the sons of Israel and say to them: "Be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy.

"You must not bear hatred for your brother in your heart. You must openly tell him, your neighbour, of his offence; this way you will not take a sin upon yourself. You must not exact vengeance, nor must you bear a grudge against the children of your people. You must love your neighbour as yourself. I am the Lord."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 102:1-4, 8, 10, 12-13

The Lord is kind and merciful.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 3:16-23

Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? If anybody should destroy the temple of God, God will destroy him, because the temple of God is sacred; and you are that temple.

Make no mistake about it: if any one of you thinks of himself as wise, in the ordinary sense of the word, then he must learn to be a fool before he really can be wise. Why? Because the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. As scripture says: The Lord knows wise men's thoughts: he knows how useless they are; or again: God is not convinced by the arguments of the wise. So there is nothing to boast about in anything human: Paul, Apollos, Cephas, the world, life and death, the present and the future, are all your servants; but you belong to Christ and Christ belongs to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 Jn 2:5

Alleluia, alleluia!

Whoever keeps the word of Christ, grows perfect in the love of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 5:38-48

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You have learnt how it was said: Eye for eye and tooth for tooth. But I say this to

BREAK THE CYCLE

Here are two young men who broke the cycle of greed and violence that hurts our nation.

Tyson's friend died in gang violence. Tyson's friends kept urging him to get revenge. But he looked to God for help. He spent a lot of time at church and with people who could support him as he struggled with anger and grief. That helped him break the cycle of violence by choosing against revenge.

Jack lives in a wealthy community where many young people drive expensive cars and live in expensive homes. Talk at his school often focuses on the newest games, computers, and clothes. But Jack found his meaning by helping out at a local soup kitchen, not by buying more and more for himself. He eventually helped lead service trips for other young people. He broke the cycle of greed and selfishness that traps many people in wealthy towns.

Tyson and Jack put this week's Gospel into practice. Jesus challenges his disciples to break the cycles of evil that suck so many people in and cause so much destruction in the world. Turn the other cheek. That means standing up for your rights without restoring to violence or seeking revenge. Jesus also tells us to sacrifice time and money for the needs of all people, even for our enemies. These are tough teachings. But our world hurts. Practicing violence, revenge, and greed hasn't made things better. Maybe it is time to try Jesus' way.

Many people today – like Tyson and Jack – take Jesus' challenges and ask God for the strength to meet them. Will you?

How in your family, school, workplace, or community could you break a cycle of violence, revenge, or greed?

DID YOU KNOW?

- In Jesus' time, a Roman soldier had the right to command any man to carry his kit one mile but no further.
- Tax collectors were reviled by the Jews because they cooperated with the Romans and collected Roman taxes on their behalf. Because of their association with Gentiles, they were considered unclean.

you: offer the wicked man no resistance. On the contrary, if anyone hits you on the right cheek, offer him the other as well; if a man takes you to law and would have your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. And if anyone orders you to go one mile, go two miles with him. Give to anyone who asks, and if anyone wants to borrow, do not turn away. 'You have learnt how it was said: You must love your neighbour and hate your enemy. But I say this to you: love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you; in this way you will be sons of your Father in heaven, for he causes his sun to rise on bad men as well as good, and his rain to fall on honest and dishonest men alike. For if you save your greetings for your brothers, are you doing anything exceptional? Even the pagans do as much, do they not? You must therefore be perfect just as your heavenly Father is perfect.'

WORKSHOP ON THE EUCHARIST

Do you have personal issues / questions / problems / wonderings about the Eucharist? Do you feel the need to reflect on your understanding of why we go to Mass?

Our celebration of our weekend Eucharist is meant to be the central focus of our life as Catholics, so we need to constantly deepen our understanding of this mystery, and grow in our appreciation of the Eucharist as the source and summit of our Christian life.

Sister Ilsa and Mrs Jenny O'Brien from the Office for Worship, will be holding a Workshop on the Eucharist for interested parishioners from the Fleurieu Cluster of Parishes, on Saturday, 18 March from 9.30am to 12.00noon at Galilee Community Hall, Aldinga. Please note this worthwhile opportunity in your diaries and let Sr Margaret Ann (0488 287 552) know if you are able to attend.

Retreat in Daily Life

24 April - 2 May, 2017

Parishioners are invited to take part in a RETREAT IN DAILY LIFE over four weeks in this Parish from 24 April to 20 May. It will be co-given by a visiting Tertian Jesuit from Ireland and is based on the spiritual exercises developed by the Jesuit founder, St Ignatius of Loyola. More details will follow in future bulletins.

DID YOU KNOW?

'An eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth'. This notion of justice and retribution from the Old Testament is often misunderstood. Rather than a dire punishment aimed at vengeance, it is in act a way of limiting retribution. In effect, Old Testament law on this point says that you may not extract more punishment than was inflicted.
