FIRST READING

Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth
came into being.

The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.

Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the
countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface
of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
– and the waters will not invade the shore –
when he laid down the foundations
of the earth,

I was by his side, a master
craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence,
at play everywhere in his world,
delighting to be with the sons of men.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

RENEWING PARISHES PROCESS

Following a series of forums last year the RENEWING PARISHES TEAM presented an eight point process for reviewing and renewing parish life for us to consider. This week we feature point three. Comments are invited from parishioners and may be passed on to any member of the WPPC, or emailed to Sr Margaret Ann: maconnelly@goodsams.org.au.

The Word of God is proclaimed in good preaching

We need to become communities that listen deeply to the Word of God. Our focus on the biblical text in our Sunday gatherings will need to spring from the way our parishes are places of the Word and of prayer during the week. Preaching emerges from the profound listening to the Word of grace offered in the text, and from listening to the community. We need time for proper formation not only for those who preach the Word, but also for those who read the Word in our assemblies. All those involved with the ministry of the Word need to be conscious that, by the manner of their proclamation, they mediate the grace of God to those who listen.

STUDENTS AT TUESDAY MASS AT GALILEE

Students from Galilee School will be attending Mass on the following Tuesdays this term: 24 May (Years 3/4, 14 June (Years 1/2), 28 June (Years 5/6/7). This is a great way for the students to learn from parishioners who attend Mass on these days.

YEAR OF MERCY MONTHLY PRAYER

THE HOLY SPIRIT: GET OUT THE ROAD MAP

I hate driving with people who won't ask for directions or look at a road map. Aside from running out of petrol, there's nothing I hate more than following a route on a hunch that it's the right way.

This brings us to a second way the Holy Spirit can make a huge difference in our lives. In this week's Gospel, Jesus promises his Apostles that "the Spirit of truth" will guide them. The same goes for us. The Spirit, in other words is our road map. Are you willing to follow it?

I've known a lot of people who've struggled with questions like: Where should I go with my life? Isn't it nice to know there are directions?

God could've sent Jesus as a role model and then left the rest to us. But God knows us, loves us, and wants the best for us, so we have guidance whenever we want it. Here are some important tips to remember when you look for that guidance.

First, Jesus gave the Spirit to the Apostles as a group, not as individuals. So they found the Spirit's guidance by praying and talking together. Likewise, we need to connect with other Christians to find the Spirit's guidance. When you have a problem or need to make a decision pray and talk with other Christians. Talk with someone who can guide you when you need direction.

Second, the Spirit's guidance comes through the dead as well as the living. Our Christian community includes heroes who've gone before us, from the Apostles to modern-day folks that we remember and could name. The Spirit guides us through their lives too. So read about them in the Bible, on the internet, in books. Let their lives provide you with part of your road map.

Finding God's direction in your life isn't always easy. It can be confusing. You'll make wrong turns and hit some dead ends. I have. But every time I've reached out for the Spirit's help, I've found direction. And looking back I'm amazed at the journey. It's been a great ride.

Recall a time when prayer or discussion with other Christians helped you find God's guidance.

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. We pray to the Trinity in the traditional "Glory Be" prayer.

How often do you say the "Glory Be" or consider what you are praying when you say it? Pray this prayer every day this week. It is good to think and search for answers, but this week learn to just trust without questioning. You might learn something new because God can speak when you are quiet.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

*To God who is, who was, and who is
to come.*

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘I still have many things to say to you
but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes
he will lead you to the complete
truth,

since he will not be speaking as from himself

but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me,
since all he tells you

will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:

All he tells you

EXPLORING THE WORD

The people of Israel were unique among the nations of the ancient world in that they held to a belief in one God. But Jesus speaks of this God as ‘Abba’, Father. There is an implied relationship with this God. Jesus also speaks of the Spirit and, again, there is a relationship between Jesus and the Spirit, for this Spirit will continue to speak the words of God and of Jesus and will glorify them. This begins the early Church’s deep reflection on the mystery of Jesus and the relationship between Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This relationship was ultimately formulated in what we now call the Trinity.

In this text, Jesus is not simply addressing those present with him but all those who search for the truth down the centuries to come. All of us are led to complete truth and understanding through the actions of the Spirit leading us to the Father and the Son. ‘At the heart of the mystery of the Trinity is a Father whose love is incarnated in the Son who gives life to the world, and in the mutual love which exists between the Father and the Son and touches our lives as the Holy Spirit’.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The early Christians struggled to understand the belief that God is both one and three. Many great Councils of the Church were held to clarify what this meant to find the language with which to describe the Trinitarian relationship between Father, Son and Spirit. It was not until the Council of Constantinople in 381 AD that the doctrine of the Trinity was defined.
- Many of the prayers of the Church express our belief in a Triune God (three persons in one). One of the greatest and most simple of these prayers is the Sign of the Cross in which we dedicate ourselves ‘in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.’
- St Augustine described the Trinity in terms of the Lover, the Beloved and the Love which exists between them.
- St Patrick reportedly used the shamrock to explain the three persons in one God to the pagans of Ireland.
