FIRST READING

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said:

I hear so many disparaging me,
“Terror from every side!”
Denounce him! Let us denounce him!

All those who used to be my friends watched for my downfall, ‘Perhaps he will be seduced into error. Then we will master him and take our revenge!’

But the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero; my opponents will stumble, mastered, confounded by their failure; everlasting, unforgettable disgrace will be theirs.

But you, Lord of Hosts, you who probe with justice, who scrutinise
the loins and heart, let me see the vengeance you will take on them,
for I have committed my cause to you.

Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord,
for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 68:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

Lord, in your great love, answer me.

SECOND READING

Romans 5:12-15

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of ‘law-breaking’, yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come,
but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man's fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn15:26, 27

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of Truth will bear witness to me, says the Lord, and you also will be my witnesses.

Alleluia!

Morphett Vale Parish Hall

Over the years, we have been become increasingly aware of our responsibility for child protection. As part of that commitment all volunteers also have a legislated duty to report child abuse and neglect, this is called mandatory notification. To ensure we hear children's voices and have the necessary skills to identify and respond appropriately in these situations, we invite any volunteers who have not yet participated in Child Safe Environments training or an equivalent course to attend a 90 minute Volunteer Briefing session facilitated by the Archdiocesan Child Protection Unit.

Please note that with respect to child safe-initiatives, and in accordance with Archdiocesan Policy, all Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist are required to demonstrate certification of attendance at Child Safe Environments Training. Thank you for agreeing to help us provide care and safety for our children and young people. Please RSVP to childprotection@adelaide.catholic.org.au This will help us to ensure you are provided with an information pack and certificate of attendance.

2018 SYNOD OF BISHOPS IN ROME

The subject of the Synod will be "Youth, the Faith and Vocational Discernment" The Holy Father has asked that the voices of young people be evident in the Synod discussions.

To accomplish this, the Australian Catholic Bishops conference has created an online survey for young people between the ages of 16-29.

Bulletin Board

This survey is for all young people, whether practicing or non-practicing Catholics, and whether deeply committed or those on the margins. It is important that they get a wide range of responses from as many young people as possible.

Please pass this information on to any young people that you know. Surveys are due to be completed by the end of June. The survey is available at: www.catholic.org.au/youthsurvey

LIVING THE WORD

Jesus' words in today's text are words of encouragement for the confused and fearful Christians of that time and all times. He speaks of a time when his teachings will be shouted from the rooftops and clear to all. Jesus reassures believers that their faith will be rewarded. They are precious to him and to the Father.

GOSPEL

Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the housetops.

'Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell. Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing. Why, every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows.

'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven. But the one who disowns me in the presence of men, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.'

EXPLORING THE WORD

The Gospel of Matthew has some practical instructions for disciples. Jesus tells the disciples that what he has spoken of in the dark can be proclaimed in the light. This suggests that we judge our moment. Jesus spoke in parables and such a technique suits a climate of mistrust and suspicion but if the group is receptive then it is possible to speak freely. Maybe at this time in our Christian story we need more parables.

We are told not to fear so it is timely to look at some of the fears that may be blocks to ministry. Sometimes we are held back from responding to a need by a lack of self-esteem. We think that there are people who are more gifted, or who will be more successful. Our scriptures show us over and over again, that willingness to let God act in us is the main attribute.

Sometimes we are afraid of interfering or of making false assumptions. Before we can offer to stand alongside someone in difficult times there must be some connectedness, a relationship or friendship. We need to be acting out of respect, love and genuine concern for the wellbeing of the other.

In times of disaster people pull together, old quarrels are forgotten and strangers become friends. One of the reasons that this happens is that the shared experience brings people together. There is no division better helper and the helped. It is this attitude of mutual giving and receiving which signifies our kinship. If we wish to serve others we need to be prepared to be served in turn. Any sense of power-over has no place in ministry.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Sparrows were sold in market places as inexpensive food for the poor and were a symbol of something of minimal value.
- Members of the Church who have died rather than renounce their faith are called martyrs. The word 'martyr' literally means 'witness'. Throughout history many have given their lives for the faith and in our own time people are still martyred because they will not swerve from their commitment to Christ.
- By the time Matthew wrote this Gospel the Church was already undergoing persecution in some areas and Christian faith was being sorely tested.
