FIRST READING

Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Phil 2:8-9

*Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
 Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross.
 Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.
 Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!*

CHANGE YOUR CLOCK

CHANGE YOUR BATTERY

Daylight Saving in South Australia ends at 2.00am on Easter Sunday morning and our clocks go back one hour (fall back, spring forward). We are also urged to change the batteries in our smoke detectors.

GOOD FRIDAY

Holy Places Appeal

The annual collection for the support of the church in the Holy Land takes place on Good Friday. This collection promotes the missionary of the church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. Our donation is a direct way to make a difference in the lives of those caught up in war, violence and instability in the Custody of the Holy Land.

PROJECT COMPASSION

When Psyche Mae featured in Project Compassion 2008, she was living in a squatter settlement, on the edge of a giant rubbish dump outside Manila in the Philippines. She is now a young social worker, with plans to study a Master's degree, whilst helping others emerge from poverty, thanks to the support of individuals and Caritas Australia.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2018 and help improve the health and wellbeing of communities in the Philippines so they can work towards eradicating poverty, providing a just future for all.

A Just Future starts with your support! You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

LET EVERY TONGUE PROCLAIM

Soap operas on television get their highest ratings when episodes are screened centring around two or more characters whose relationships are reaching a climax. The dialogue is generally very emotional and keeps us on the edge of our seats. We are drawn into the story because it could easily be one that we have to live ourselves. Perhaps it is even one that we recognise.

As we watch the story unfold, we wonder how we ourselves would react in the same situations. What would we have said to that person? Mercifully, we don't have to cope with many of the things that soap-opera characters have to. However, they do make us wonder, don't they?

When, in our quieter moments, we sit confused, wondering about Jesus and our faith in him, it is all too easy to think, "If only I had been around two thousand years ago and known Jesus in the flesh. If only I had been one of his disciples and had seen him cure and preach. If only ... then my faith in Jesus would be stronger and my relationship with him would be more real". But the reality is we don't know how we would have reacted, had we been around all those years ago. We might well have fled, we might well have sided with the authorities, we might well have shouted: "Crucify him! Crucify him!" The fact that we were not with Jesus during his earthly ministry does not prevent us from coming to know and follow him now.

As we make the journey with Jesus through this week, let us be sure to take time to deepen our appreciation of what he has done for us. Then, like the centurion, we will be able to proclaim that Jesus is truly the Son of God. It is never too late to meet him.

What part of the Passion story most touches your life this year?

Thank you for your support - it is much appreciated.

- I love everything about Switzerland and their flag is a big plus too.
- I often spend all day chopping up herbs. I've got way too much thyme on my hands.
- Correct punctuation: the difference between a sentence that's well-written and a sentence that's, well, written.
- If pigs could fly, I bet their wings would taste delicious.

GOSPEL

Mk 14:1-15:47 (abridged)

They lead Jesus out to crucify him ... They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which means the place of the skull. They offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he refused it. Then they crucified him, and shared out his clothing, casting lots to decide what each should get. It was the third hour when they crucified him. The inscription giving the charge against him read: 'The King of the Jews'. And they crucified two robbers with him, one on his right and one on his left.

The passers-by jeered at him; they shook their heads and said, 'Aha! So you would destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days! Then save yourself: come down from the cross!' The chief priests and the scribes mocked him among themselves in the same way. 'He saved others,' they said, 'he cannot save himself. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now, for us to see it and believe.' Even those who were crucified with him taunted him.

When the sixth hour came there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, 'Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachtani?' which means 'My God, my God, why have you deserted me?' When some of those who stood by heard this, they said, 'Listen, he is calling on Elijah.' Someone ran and soaked a sponge in vinegar and, putting it on a reed, gave it to him to drink saying, 'Wait and see if Elijah will come to take him down.' But Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Golgotha is a Semitic word which means 'skull'. The name Calvary comes from the Latin translation of 'skull'. It is likely that the name comes from the habitual use of the site for executions.

- Passion or Palm Sunday is the beginning of what is known as Holy Week, a period of intense preparation for the ceremonies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil.
- The Passion of Christ refers to his arrest, trial and death.
- Jesus is in Jerusalem at this time to celebrate the Festival of Passover.

SHARING THE TRADITION

One of the great devotions associated with this period of the Church year is the Stations of the Cross (sometimes called the Way of the Cross). There are traditionally fourteen Stations associated with events of the arrest, trial and death of Jesus. To travel and meditate on these events is a centuries-old practice, with some evidence of similar devotion going back as far as the fifth century. It is a practice which was promoted by the Franciscans who were given custody of the Holy Places in the Holy Land in the 1300s.

THIS WEEK'S READINGS
