FIRST READING

Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.

To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying.

Yet God did make man imperishable,
he made him in the image of his own
nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 29:2,4-6,11-13

*I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me.*

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence,
of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things

difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture
says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

2 Tim 1:10

Alleluia, alleluia!

*Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done
away with death and brought us life
through his gospel.*

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat
to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus
by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly,
saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with

NEW BISHOP OF DARWIN

“Dear Brothers and Sisters, It is with delight that I write to congratulate Father Charles Gauci on his appointment as Bishop of the Diocese of Darwin.

This welcome news was announced by Pope Francis in Rome. It coincides with the Holy Father's acceptance of the resignation of Bishop Hurley who is retiring after serving the people of the Northern Territory so graciously and diligently over the past 11 years and prior to that the Diocese of Port Pirie for nine years.

Arriving from Malta with his family as a 13 year old, Fr Gauci undertook his secondary education with the Marist Brothers at Thebarton and Findon High School. He studied for the priesthood at St Francis Xavier Seminary, Rostrevor, and was ordained at the age of 25 in St Francis Xavier's Cathedral in 1977.

Fr Gauci's pastoral life has seen him assigned to various parishes in the Archdiocese of Adelaide including Hectorville Parish as assistant priest for five years, Woodville Parish for three years and Elizabeth North Parish for one year and then in team ministry across the two Elizabeth parishes for 11 years.

In 1998 he was appointed Parish Priest of Noarlunga Seaford, a role that was expanded in recent years to include Willunga, Kangaroo Island, Victor Harbor and Goolwa.

The Archdiocese is extremely grateful to Fr Gauci for his pastoral care and leadership in the Southern Deanery where he covered eight centres of worship and five Catholic schools and developed a unique team approach.

In 2017 Fr Gauci was appointed Administrator of the Adelaide Cathedral Parish where he has continued to demonstrate his strong commitment to evangelising and, in particular, developing the faith of young people through the parish and through his chaplaincy in schools.

This is a time for much rejoicing and thanksgiving for Fr Gauci's gifts as a priest and the opportunity he has been given to be the shepherd of the faithful in our sister Diocese of Darwin.

I know you will join me in offering your prayers and best wishes to Fr Gauci, and to Bishop Hurley on this next stage of their lives as disciples of Christ.”

Thank you!

Special thanks to all the parishioners who kindly responded to our appeal to top up our depleted pantry.

As a result of your generous donations, our pantry cupboard is now over-flowing with kindness and food. Your thoughtfulness is very much appreciated.

FIGHTING POVERTY AND INEQUALITY IN AUSTRALIA

Friends of Francis will be tackling this topic on Sunday 8 July at 3.00pm at Galilee Community Room, Aldinga. Learn how the Australian Catholic Bishops are calling for a sustainable and inclusive economy, and what we can do to support this. Friends of Francis is inspired by the witness of Pope Francis and Francis of Assisi, encouraging Catholics to become involved in issues of social justice, peace and Earth care. For further information contact Peter Laffan (8556 3915 or impe@internode.on.net)

DON'T HAVE FAITH, ACT WITH FAITH

Real faith means taking the initiative and showing courage. Real faith means risking rejection and failure. The bleeding woman was unclean under Jewish law, which means she risked a humiliating rejection by wading through the crowd to touch Jesus.

Do you need healing or help? Do you want to see changes in your school, your family, your workplace, or your world? Do you see others that need help? Then don't have faith, act with faith. Take the risky steps to reach out and make a difference. Call for Jesus to strengthen your courage. Don't give up when it gets tough. Eventually you will feel God's power flow through your life. GPBS eNews him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I shall be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Jairus, as an official of the synagogue, belonged to one of the groups who were traditionally deeply suspicious and disapproving of Jesus. Here however, Jairus' faith is contrasted with the lack of faith of the onlookers who simply laugh at Jesus. His faith is rewarded.
- For Jesus to lay hands upon a young woman of twelve years of age (old enough to be betrothed) would have been seen as a scandalous act. Jesus breaks through the restrictions of social norm to bring life.
