FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia,

Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 103:1, 24, 29-31, 24

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING

Romans 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from

WEEKEND MASSES

(Times on front page of this bulletin)

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

You kingdoms of the earth, sing to God; praise the Lord, who ascends above the highest heavens; his majesty and might are in the skies, alleluia.

COVID RESTRICTIONS

For the latest Archdiocesan restrictions please see page 4 of this bulletin. Please keep in mind the importance of social distancing and good hygiene practices. The Archdiocesan Count of Attendance, which is used for pastoral planning and financial reporting, finishes this weekend.

ALDINGA SOLDIERS WAR MONUMENT

The City of Onkaparinga is relocating the Aldinga Soldiers War Monument currently located on Main South Road and Stonehouse Lane, due to the Main South Road duplication. Relocation of the war monument presents an opportunity to create a new and more appropriate memorial space to commemorate local servicemen and women in the region.

We are seeking feedback from the community on the proposed concept plan. For further information on the proposal, or to provide feedback, please visit the Your Say page. Consultation closes on 6 June.

WALKING IN THE SPIRIT

Pilgrimage for the Plenary Council

People across the country are invited to participate in a national prayer pilgrimage as the Catholic Church in Australia prepares for the Second Assembly of the Fifth Plenary

Council of Australia in Sydney from July 3-9.

We pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance and grace for the members who will gather and also for ourselves and the Church, that we may have the courage to follow where God is leading us. For more information visit www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/walkinginthespirit

THANK YOU

Many thanks to the people in our three communities who kept count of Mass attendees each weekend during May for the annual Archdiocesan May Mass Count in our Parish.

MORNING TEA at ST JOSEPH'S

We plan to resume the first Sunday of the month cuppa following 8.30am Mass from this weekend (June 5). Prior to Covid, this was pretty much a tradition at St Joseph's. Of course, even with an easing of restrictions, we will continue to keep in mind that the pandemic isn't over and follow some important safety procedures.

HOLY FATHER'S APPEAL 11/12 June

There will be a Special Collection next weekend - the Appeal for the works of the Holy Father. Offerings made to the Holy Father are used for the works of the Church, for humanitarian work, social development work, and for the Holy Father's charitable works

CONSIDERING A VOCATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD?

A time of reflection, discussion and prayer with Vicar General Fr Dean Marin will be held on Saturday June 11 at 10.15am in the Sacristy of St Francis Xavier's Cathedral.

For more information contact Fr Dean on: 8210 8122 or vicargeneral@adelaide.catholic.org.au

ST VINCENT PALLOTTI SCHOLARSHIP TRUST

The St Vincent Pallotti Scholarship Trust offers scholarships to enable lay people to further their understanding and skills in leadership/ministry or a specialised activity, such as promoting faith enhancement, social justice and pastoral care.

Closing date for application is July 29. More information and application forms available at <https://Pallottine.org.au/scholarships/st-vincent-pallotti-scholarship-for-lay-ministry.html>.

REFUGEE WEEK 2022 Prayer Service

An online prayer service will be hosted by the Australian Catholic Migrant and Refugee Office and the Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace on June 20 at 6pm (AEST). Register now at <https://bit.ly/RefugeeWeek2022Prayers>

THE BASICS OF PASTORAL CARE

Thursday, June 23 1pm – 4.30pm in Bethany Hall (inc afternoon tea)

This is a free training session for anyone who is interested in the skills needed to offer pastoral care to others. We will explore listening, non-verbal communication, acknowledging and affirming others in their grief, loss and stress. Led by (Rev) Jenski from Willunga Uniting Church.

RSVP: Leanne.jenski@optusnet.com.au or text 0409 516 857.

MARY MACKILLOP MUSEUM

If you haven't already visited the museum, this four-minute video introduction might whet your appetite:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1IF8PIm29KZZ0KWCPoWKWyTdnrFM_wss/view?form=MY01SV&OCID=MY01SVintroduction

Come any day, Sunday to Tuesday, between 10.00am and 4.00pm. Bring the family – there's plenty to see and do for children.

RESPIRE SERVICE FOR CARERS

A new respite service called Aldinga House, is opening soon at 18 Halycon Circuit, Aldinga Beach.

It offers respite support to older people who are eligible to receive services under the government-funded Commonwealth Home Support program. The services include day and overnight respite support.

Some of the services offered by Aldinga House may also be accessed by people who are currently receiving support through the government-funded Home Care Package program, as well as by older people who are not in receipt of any government-funded service.

The services provided by Aldinga House can be of assistance and support to those carers who require a much-needed break from their caring role.

If you, or someone you know, are interested please call Resthaven Community Respite Services (phone 8198 2060) and speak with a co-ordinator for more information about arranging a few days away, near the beach. Franco Parenti - Manager Community Respite Services

QUINLIVEN and ROWLEY RDS

We're upgrading the roundabout at the intersection of Quinliven and Rowley Rds, Aldinga. The roundabout requires repair and as part of the work, we will be landscaping the surrounding land to beautify the area. The landscaping will include six feature trees, a new path connection and a bench seat and we'd like the community to tell us which trees they'd prefer to see featured.

For all the information, including the concept plan and to have your say, please visit the Your Say Page.

COMPLIANCE WITH COVID-19 REGULATIONS

(Current from 01/06/22)

- If you have tested positive for COVID-19, please follow the SA Health instructions in regard to isolating and other government health protocols. Stay home and do not attend church services until you have fully recovered.
- There are now no density limits for places of worship.
- Masks are highly recommended by the Archdiocese.
- Attendees at indoor religious services may sing during worship.
- Please keep in mind the importance of social distancing and good hygiene practices.
- Hand sanitizer is available at Church entrances.
- There should be no shaking of hands or holding hands during Mass.
- Offertory procession will be omitted. Communion is given only in hands. Precious Blood will not be distributed.
- Collection plates will not be passed around.
- Holy Water is not available at the doors of churches.
- Sick and high risk/vulnerable people should be encouraged not to attend.
- The Archdiocese recommends Covid vaccinations for all (please check with your GP if you have concerns).

DID YOU KNOW?

- Pentecost was originally a Jewish harvest festival, celebrated fifty days after the Passover. It was one of the great pilgrimage festivals of the Jews, and this is why so many pilgrims were present in Jerusalem on the day when the Spirit was manifested in the lives of the disciples.
- The Christian feast of Pentecost is fifty days after Easter and is the culmination of the Lent–Easter–Pentecost cycle.
- The church teaches that the Holy Spirit brings both gifts and fruits to the faithful.

the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 14:15-16,23-26

Jesus said to his disciples:

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words.

And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me.

I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

Red is the colour that is often associated with the Spirit, and red vestments are worn by the priest on Pentecost Sunday. Red symbolises the intense love or 'fire' of the Holy Spirit. Other symbols of the Spirit are tongues of flame, wind and a white dove. All have their origins in Scripture. Each of these conveys something of the mystery of the Spirit of God, which is beyond human understanding.

NEW MILLENNIUM APOSTLES

What amazement we find in this little scene! Jesus presents to his disciples the wounds of his crucifixion, which caused such horror only days earlier. But this time, the sight of these wounds fills their hearts with joy. On Friday, that bruised body meant despair and defeat. By Sunday night, the sight of it is the greatest hope ever dared.

Pentecost is, in its own way, a second feast of Transfiguration. The disciples see things differently, and it's not only their perception that's new. They themselves are transformed from well-meaning but ineffective people into folks prepared to risk everything for the truth. The disciples (a term meaning "those who learn") become apostles ("those who are sent"). As apostles of the new millennium, we're summoned to this same new vision, and sent on behalf of the same truth. Jesus transforms death into life, darkness into light. We can help the world to see its own wounds in a whole new way.
